

Welcome to the High Country Hamlets

Join us in celebrating our abundant and vibrant micro region.

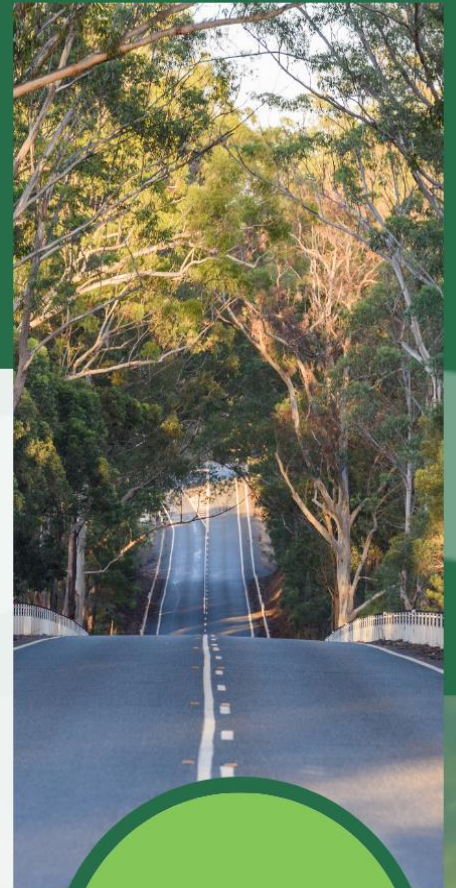

High Country Hamlets is a collective of tourism operators and local businesses working together to promote the best of this tree-studded region and its friendly townships.

Members benefit from a range of tools and marketing opportunities designed to expand their reach and thus expand the reach of the region as a whole.

Your business will be featured throughout the four seasons in customised story-telling on Facebook & Instagram, in a Destination Guide distributed far and wide and on the official website.

We welcome new members & look forward to sharing our motto...
